DAY 1 EXPLORE DOWNTOWN

CENTRAL MARKET

LJUBLJANA CASTLE

RIVER LJUBLJANICA

Begin your day with a walk around Ljubljana's Central Market. It's more than just a place to shop. Traditionally, it has been a place for the locals to meet, shop, chat and enjoy the local cuisine. Explore the indoor and outdoor market area, which is open every day except Sundays.

Try some Slovenian cuisine and have a brunch at Moji Štruklji. This "štrukljarnica" is located in Plečnik's arcade at Ljubljana's Central Market and serves up a daily range of more than 20 different types of "štruklji" - boiled strudel - with creamy or classic fillings and toppings. Treat yourself to traditional varieties such as cottage cheese, tarragon, apple or a buckwheat version with walnuts.

You can join a guided tour through Ljubljana Central Market. The yummy market walk is available on Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday at 9 am and will take you on a culinary exploration of the market.

RIVER LJUBLJANICA

The Ljubljana River is one of Ljubljana's most notable landmarks with its attractive bridges and picturesque old city centre embankments. The embankments are densely scattered with lively cafés offering outdoor seating, and they are the heart of Ljubljana's social life.

Stop by at Restaurant Breg for a feast or just a slice. It's not a bistro, it's not a tavern, Breg is an inn - the way they used to be known, but without the dustiness. A neo-inn, according to its famous chef Jorg Zupan.

A good way to see the old city centre and its famous bridges, picturesque buildings and vibrant embankments from a completely different angle is to join a tourist boat cruise along the river. In the summer you can join a sup or kayak tour and paddle through the city centre.

Be sure to find some fun and entertainment in the evening and check out all the events in Ljubljana for the time of your stay.

In Ljubljana, culinary adventurers will find a rich and diverse range of foods for every taste and pocket. Ljubljana's food scene is like the city itself: ancient but youthful, refined but boisterous, local but cosmopolitan.

In Tivoli Park, you can stop for lunch at Švicarija or at the nearby Pivnica Union, or you can visit Trubarjeva Street to enjoy some of the most delicious street food in Ljubljana.

Visit the City Museum not far from Plečnik's house to see the world's oldest wooden wheel with an axle (5,200 years old) and stop by the National Museum to see the oldest musical instrument in the world - a 60,000-year-old Neanderthal flute.

The biggest attraction of the National Gallery is its rich collection of works by Slovenian impressionists, while the Museum of Modern Art exhibits works by leading artists of the twentieth century.

Take a break and a breath - stroll through Tivoli Park just next to the galleries and museums and enjoy sharing the many pathways with walkers, runners, picnickers and the like.

ŠMARNNA GORA

SHOPPING

Visit some of our most popular hiking destinations of Šmarna gora, Rožnik or Golovec. They are all easy to reach by public transport.

To start your day with a bit of exercise on Šmarna gora and incredible panoramic views on this 669-meter hill, try planning your ascent to catch the sunrise at the top. While the 366 m of elevation are worth the effort regardless of when you go, it's the sunrise that truly brings out the magic. See for yourself, it's spectacular.

At the mountain top of Šmarna gora you will find the Gostilna Ledinek restaurant. They serve traditional Slovenian dishes, particularly well known "ričet" barley stew, "jota" bean and sauerkraut stew, sauerkraut with buckwheat "žganci" (a traditional Slovenian thick dish of boiled buckwheat flour, shredded and sprinkled with melted fat), Carniolan sausage, and "štruklji" rolls filled with cottage cheese and tarragon.

If more choice is what you need, catch bus no. 27 and ride out to the BTC shopping centre. It is one of Europe's most prominent business, shopping, entertainment, recreational and cultural centres.

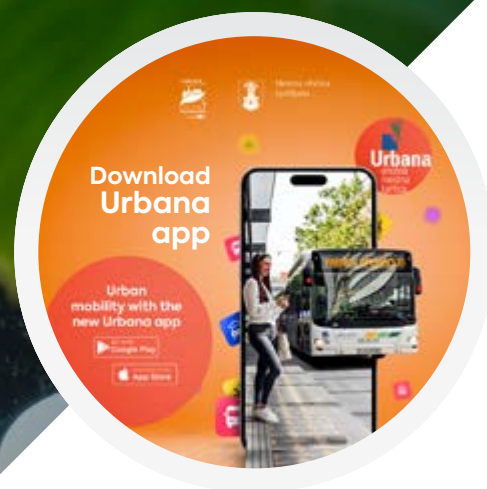

Complete your day with a Traditional Slovenian Evening and experience famous Slovenian hospitality. Delicious home-made dinner with a folklore group is followed by a social entertainment programme where you can dance, sing and participate in fun games.
